REPORT.

WE, the Managers of the Church Home for Children, beg leave to submit to our friends and supporters our fifteenth Annual Report.

There has been the usual average of admissions and dismissions during 1870, the inmates now numbering sixty-six, of whom forty-eight are girls, and eighteen boys.

There can be no stronger argument for the necessity of enlarging the Home than the constant appeals for shelter which are almost daily made to the Committee of Admission, but which they are forced to refuse, simply on account of the insufficiency of the present accommodations.

If these appeals, from helpless and homeless childhood, could only reach the ears of the Church at large, we feel that any further word from us would be unnecessary to induce its members to hasten, by their material aid, the project of removal and enlargement.

The corner-stone of the new building (of which mention was made in the last Report), was laid with appropriate ceremonies at Angora, (the first station on the West Chester and Media Railroad), on the afternoon of October 29th, 1870, by the Bishop of the Diocese. Several of the clergy were present, a large number of the friends of the Institution, besides the Managers and children.

The plan which has been adopted was designed by T. W. Richards, Esq., architect, and combines, as we think, architectural beauty with great simplicity and comfort. Due attention has been paid to the lighting and ventilation, so as to make it a bright and healthy home for children.

There will be a centre building, with symmetrical wings on either side, thus providing for the separation of boys and girls; the stairways are to be of iron, and the portion of the building in which they are placed is to be made fire-proof, while, as an additional preventive against fire, the principal partition walls will be of brick, and the entire work is to be done in the most substantial manner.

We should be ungrateful, did we not recognize the liberality with which our efforts have already been met.

Thirty-six Thousand Dollars are subscribed, but this is only a little more than half the amount required before the new Home can be occupied.

With every desire to push the work on to its fulfilment, we are determined to erect a building worthy of the noble gift of land, and not to incur debt. From these two principles which are to guide us, may be judged the importance of a prompt and energetic response to our appeal. We gather encouragement for the future from our success in the past, and it rests with you not to let our well-founded hopes be disappointed.

We cannot urge this matter more strongly upon you than by quoting part of the Address of Bishop Stevens to the last Convention. In speaking of the Church Home, he says:

“It is a work in which our Church shows itself so peculiarly as a nursing mother, and one which is so imperatively needed in this large city and diocese, that I would earnestly press upon you the importance of aiding the efforts of the Managers, so that they can at once go on with the work which they have so well begun. The pastoral which I issued last winter upon this subject, looked to the establishment of two kindred Institutions, an Orphans’ Asylum for boys, and the Church Home for girls. In endeavoring to work out these two plans, it was found that it would be unwise, and produce uncomfortable collisions, to press both upon the notice of the public now. It was also believed that the enlargement of the Church Home would prove sufficient to receive all the cases that the means which might ordinarily be relied upon, would support. To prevent, therefore, any seeming division of feeling and liberality, and to con-concentrate all the energies of the Church upon one work, the plan of the Orphans' Asylum for boys has been relinquished, and the efforts of the friends of the fatherless children will now be centred in getting up the new and enlarged Church Home, which is so worthy of your sympathy and support, and which I hereby commend to your prayers, to your present benefactions, and to a liberal remembrance in your last wills and testaments."

We gratefully acknowledge our obligations to the various officers of the Home, for duties cheerfully and efficiently rendered. Prominent among the donations stand the following: An additional half acre of ground, from Mrs. Ann G. Thomas (making in all 13 acres); a ground rent of $1300 from Mr. I. V. Williamson; 17 tons of coal from Messrs. Conyngham and Parrish, of Wilkesbarre; 30 tons from Mr. John P. Brock; a charming day spent by the children at the private country seat of a gentleman in the neighborhood of Philadelphia; the thanksgiving dinner given by Messrs. Coffin and Redner, and a large amount of sewing done by the Unitarian Aid Society. Among the donations to the Building Fund were, two representations of "Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works," by Miss Harwood of Washington, and "Scenes from Faust," for which we are indebted to Mr. F. T. S. Darley. Nor must we forget the sermon preached by the Rev. Phillips Brooks, on the evening of Sunday, April 24th, whereby a handsome addition was made to the Fund, and for which we heartily thank him.

The Annual examination was held on July 22d, by Colonel McFarland, Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphans, assisted by George L. Harrison, Esq., and Dr. Wilmer Worthington of the Board of Public Charities, all of whom expressed themselves pleased with the mental and physical status of the children.

We cannot look back upon the history of the past year without feelings of profound gratitude. While the health of the children has been preserved (and here it may not be out of place to state the fact that no death has ever occurred at the Home), and gratifying progress has been made in their education, the contributions for current expenses have been larger than in any preceding year, besides more than $20,000 added to the Building Fund. This evidence of liberality, not only of the members of our own communion, but of others, leads us confidently to hope that the time has at last arrived when the Church Home may be considered as established upon a firm and solid basis. We trust that it is destined, as the Episcopal Hospital does, to command the united efforts of all the churches, and thus to meet, in all coming time, the special needs for which it is designed. To supply those needs should be not only a duty, but a holy delight, while we remember Christ's own words, "Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me."

The following hymn having been written by a friend for the occasion, was sung by the children at the laying of the corner-stone, October 29th, 1870.

BENEATH a lowly cottage door,
 All in the snow and sleet,
 A little child stood shivering
 With bare and bleeding feet—
 A poor, poor widow took him in,
 And warmed and clothed and fed,
 With kisses soft and tender words,
 She laid him on her bed.
 But when the wintry morning dawned,
 Gone was the beggar child,
 And lo! a glorious cherub form,
 That looked on her and smiled—
 That stretched his hands in blessing,
 Then vanished from her sight;
 It was the Babe of Bethlehem,
 Who sought her door that night.

Oh loving friends who gathered us
 From crowded lane and street,
 (Poor, homeless babes, that strayed forth,
 With bare and bleeding feet.)

Who taught us by first loving us,
 To know how God must love,
 And in your sheltering "Home" to find,
 The pledge of one above,—
 Be sure that when at last, before
 The great white throne you stand,
 The very Babe of Bethlehem
 Will take you by the hand,
 And—"Come, ye blessed," He will say,
 "Right welcome ye shall be,
 For as ye did unto my lambs,
 So did ye unto me."

And she whose gracious gift it was,
 This lovely, peaceful spot,
 This grassy lawn, these spreading trees,
 She shall not be forgot,
 To her the Holy Child will say,
 "Beneath that welcome shade,
 Among my little playmates,
 How often I have strayed."
 And all whose generous hands shall help
 To build this "Children's Home,"
 The blessings of the homeless ones,
 Upon your heads shall come—
 These shall not fail, for unto us,
 Our Lord has given such grace,
 That Children's Angels always do,
 Behold the Father's face.

And now, Our Heavenly Father,
 Who art the Orphans' Friend,
 Receive our ardent thanks and praise,
 For mercies without end.
 But most, that giving Thy dear Son,
 Thou dost keep nothing back,
 Dost freely give Thyself in Him, that Nothing we might lack—
 And oh! that all poor wandering babes,
 Wherever they may be,
 Our brothers and our sisters
 In Thy dear family,
 May find such friends as we have found,
 As we have proved, may prove
 By Thy world's loving—past all doubt,
 How Thy Great heart can love.
